FOUNDATION COURSE

➡ Programme overview

The UniME Foundation Course (UFC) is an intensive and comprehensive preparatory programme designed specifically for international students. This bridging course is tailored to help to meet the official academic requirements for enrollment in Italian higher education while strengthening the language proficiency and core disciplinary knowledge necessary for a successful university career.

Specifically designed for international applicants who have completed fewer than the 12 years of global schooling required by Italian law, UFC offers a seamless path to your future studies.

Successfully completing the programme grants direct admission to open-access Bachelor's Degree programmes at UniME. Furthermore, for those aiming for a career in healthcare, the curriculum is structured to provide rigorous preparation for the highly competitive entrance examination (IMAT) for the prestigious Medicine and Surgery degree programme.

The programme is offered in a hybrid format.

Students will begin your journey during the first semester with remote, online classes, allowing you to study from home while finalizing your visa arrangements. For the second semester, you will join us on campus in Messina for in-presence lessons, fully immersing yourself in university life.

All enrolled students are guaranteed accommodation during their stay, which is conveniently arranged at the Villa Amalia compound. UFC programme makes you fully eligible to apply for a student visa and subsequently obtain an Italian residence permit for study purposes.
